

Legal Notice — Labour / Employment Matter

DATE	FROM	TO
14 August 2026	Rahul Sharma Bengaluru, Karnataka	Tech Corp Pvt. Ltd. Bengaluru, Karnataka

SUBJECT

Legal Notice — My employer terminated me without paying my wages

Sir/Madam,

I, Rahul Sharma, residing at Bengaluru, Karnataka, am issuing this legal notice to Tech Corp Pvt. Ltd., having its office at Bengaluru, Karnataka, regarding My employer terminated me without paying my wages.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

- The Complainant / Claimant states that: My employer terminated me without paying my wages.
- The Complainant has repeatedly requested amicable resolution, which has not been fulfilled by the Addressee.

NATURE OF GRIEVANCE

My employer terminated me without paying my wages.

AMOUNT IN DISPUTE

INR 1,20,000

LEGAL RIGHTS

- According to Section 17 of The Code on Wages, 2019, your employer is required to pay you within two working days if they have dismissed or removed you from service
- Therefore, if your employer terminated your employment without paying your wages, you are entitled to receive the unpaid wages within this period.
- Section 45 of The Code on Wages, 2019 also states that if an employer fails to pay the wages as required by Section 17 or any other relevant section, a certificate can be issued by an authority
- This certificate allows the Collector or District Magistrate to recover the unpaid wages from your employer.

LEGAL BASIS

The Code on Wages, 2019 — Section 17: Section 17

Provided That Different Wage Periods May Be Fixed For Different Establishments

The Code on Wages, 2019 — Section 45: Section 45

Then, The Employer Shall Be Discharged Of His Liability To Pay Those Amounts

The Code on Wages, 2019 — Section 2: Section 2

Section 2 Provision

RELIEF REQUESTED

- Immediate release and disbursement of all outstanding salary and dues.
- Issuance of experience certificate and formal statement of account.

You are hereby called upon to comply with the above relief within 15 days of the receipt of this notice, failing which I shall be constrained to initiate appropriate legal proceedings against you at your risk and cost.

Yours faithfully,

Rahul Sharma

Bengaluru, Karnataka

Date: 14 August 2026